THE ACCEPTED.

Ah! she loves me! loves me! the beautiful maiden!
Even now she is thinking of me, I know,
As she stands, perhaps, by her vine-wreathed window,
Looking down on the blooming roses below.

Or she leans like a lily into the twilight,
Eager to see my well known form;
And as vainly she gazes she seeks the garden
With the breath of summer so sweet and warm.

And sighing, she wanders beneath theludens,
Or pauses, and speaks to the blossoms so pure,
And tells them how I deserve her affection,
And am so agreeable—she is sure!

And when in her bed she softly slumbers,
And the moonlight over her blood hair streams
There flits around her well loved presence—
Floating and mingled with all her dreams.

E'en in the light of the morn—at breckfast,
In the omelet's gold and the muffin's snow,
She seen my dear, sweet smiling features,
And she eats them up out of love, I know!

Our Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug., 6, '70.

MR. EDITOR:—There is such a dearth of news at the Capitol—such a general stagnation of all kinds of business—that we naturally look out into the States for all the facts and fancies which go to make up our political nourishment, at least.

The trying times are coming, in which is to be tested the respective strength of the two great political parties of the country, and, of course, all attention is enlisted in the conflict so soon to be decided.

No topic of greater interest can suggest itself than a review of the parties to the conflict, and the deductions which follow are of no little moment to every lover of good government and political economy. It is no uncommon prophesy, among the knowing ones, that the Republican party is doomed, and that the next election will mark its downfall; but when you develop the reason for such prophesies, it is found to be invariably based upon fallacious grounds. There can be no well grounded reason for the decline of the party. It has withstood so much—has battled so nobly in more trying times, and accomplished such marvelous, and accomplished such marvelous achievements in progressive civilization, that it were worse than infamy to assign to it such a short duration in the field of successful action.

It cannot be denied that it is the strongest political organization that ever existed in this government. Strong, not only numerically, embracing as it does, a vast majority of the representation from the different States in the Union, but of great moral strength, enlisting the love and affection of the people at home, and commanding the respect and consideration of the nations abroad. It might not be too much to say that in the antecedent developments, and in the practical workings toward its organization, the finger of Providence was certainly visible. The sudden decline of Knownothingism which, during its short existence, had stirred up the whole body politic, and disrupted old party affiliations and prejudices, furnished the opportunity for the fusion of the better elements of society into some distinct and national form for the maintenance of the common weal.

The general distrust of the South in the event of certain contingencies, the looming up in the horizon of almost certain and inevitable war in which all that was glorious in our history as a nation, and all that was desirable in our future was palpably imperiled, gave a strength to that Union against which the combined efforts of rebel bullets in the front, and rebel ballots in the rear, could never prevail.

It is useless to recount the conflicts through which the party passed when the terrible ordeal of fratricidal war was upon it. History has garnered up the chosen victories achieved by bullet and ballet, and with scornful finger will she point to the mean and disreputable artifices by which the same party which is now struggling for the ascendency sought the overthrow of the only hope of the Republic. The God of battles was with us in the field, and his good angels were with the loyal and patriotic people at home, and ours was the triumphant victory. And now the war for the Union was ended, the rebellion effectually crushed, never, we had fondly hoped, to lift its hideous head in the garden of our twice-redeemed liberties, and peace had once more returned with her blessings to wipe out the bloody stains, and fill up the deep chasms of cruel war. But, just as the nation was holding up its hands, before high heaven, in humble thanksgiving for victories in war, and for the blessings of a peace achieved through such bloody sacrifice, the hands of the assassin, guided by the instinct of a fiend incarnate, laid in death the great head and front of the nation. The nation was saved; but its saviour was dead. Peace was established; but its great architect went down amid the sacrifices which obtained it.

And, may I not say here that, if it was written of Washington that he was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen," the angel of renown stands ready, with chisel in hand, to inscribe on the monument of Lincoln, that he was neither slow in war, nor slow in peace, and always for the Union.

What a fame history will treasure up for him. What a monument will the Republic rear to his memory. Of an origin that was lowly; reared in the fields of adversity; educated in the school of self-impelled labor; actuated by the noblest resolves; filled with the purest philanthrophy; called to fill the highest office in the gift of the people, in the darkest days of their history; ever working with an eye single to the highest good and greatest glory of the nation; bringing order out of chaos, and making the star of liberty to shine resplendent through the dark cloud of rebellion, and the stars and stripes to float once more over a land rent by civil feuds, and drenched in fraternal blood; in all; in all we hold him up before heaven and men, as the great benefactor of his race—as the great apostle, and champion and martyr to human liberty.

But it seemed that the nation had not yet been scourged enough; that her chastisement had not yet been severe enough; that the Republican party had not yet fulfilled its mission, for the hand of the assassin had but opened up a bloody way for the elevation of another to the high place of the nation. Shrowded in the habiliments of mourning, the people came up from the tomb of their murdered Lincoln to pay their devotions, and lay their offering at the feet of his successor. With a fortitude, such as no people ever before possessed, they struggled with the eye of faith to see behind the dark cloud of their woe a smiling Providence.

How we hoped, and hoped, even against hope; how we clutched at every semblance of good; how we laid the sad unction to our souls that Lincoln had lived out his appointed time, fulfilled his mission, and was taken home to his father's, and that it was reserved for another to put the finishing touch upon the great work from which he had been called.

But Andrew Johnson, false to his traditions, false to the party who believed those traditions, and rewarded him with the second honor in its gift; false to every principle of manhood, ignored the common expectations of the people of the North, and the loyal people of the South, of a just and equitable restoration of the Union, thereby planting the seeds of renewed distractions, which might, at any time, ripen into war.

And then came the great conflict between he Republican party, and the great apostate, Andrew Johnston—between the Executive and Legislative departments of the government. And just here, let me say, that there is no more trying era in the history of a nation, and most especially so, when struggling up from the depths of a loathsome and fearfully diseased condition of public morals, superinduced by war, even in its mildest forms, than when the elements of discord and disaffection exists between the Executive and Legislative branches of the government. And here is the proudest and noblest record of a Republican Congress. Fearlessly and unfalteringly it stood, true to its instincts of patriotism, and in obedience to the behests of the people, while the allurements of Executive patronage—position and emoluments—exhausted themselves in the vain attempt to seduce it from its proud position as the architect of the new and more glorious structure of American Republicanism. No prouder fame can attach to the Republican party than its consistent and persistent effort, from its organization, to represent itself in the councils of the nation through its best and ablest Statesmen.

Not more from an honest desire of rewarding those worthy of its patronage and support, and who had made for themselves a name and fame in the great events of the nation's history, than from the imperative necessity of having the right men in the right place, in the trying ordeals of the times, has it been lead to concentrate the genius, talent and patriotism of the country in the Halls of Legislation. That there have been exceptions, is possible—even probable; but it ever there was an effort so general as to amount to a universality of purpose, its history must date with the last, and two preceding Congresses. True, their history had not been identified with the great drama of actual moral conflict; the tocsin thunder of war had died out, and the storms of direful hate and bloody passion had settled down into the lull of a peace so profound, that it was almost painful, yet there were interests involved, national problems to be solved, and principles of political economy to be established, which make up the great victories of peace, paramount to the grandest achiements of war.

The direst rebellion that ever cursed any people, or any land, had been crushed; the last sacrifice of blood and deathful valor had been laid upon the altar; the sword had been returned to its scabbard, and the scarred veterans of half a hundred, or more battles, had hung up their muskets, proud heir-looms of a hundred generations to come; but the wounds of this dreadful war were to be healed; the fragments of this rebellion were to be washed from their blood, and cemented anew to the old Union; States discordant, dissevered, but, thank God, not belligerent, were again to be united to the sisterhood, and a Republican Congress was to act the leading part in the great problem of reconstruction. How well it has done it, history alone will tell. That it has done wisely and judiciously in every measure would be saying more, perhaps, than is consistent with truth, or due to any body of men that ever sat in the councils of this, or any other country in times of parallel moment; but that it has acted consistently in the main—that it has received the endorsement of the honest, patriotic Union-lo

SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.—The Republican Conferees of the 21st Senatorial District will meet at Tyrone, on Friday, August 26, to nominate two candidates for Senator.

THE GUERRILLA TICKET.

The Court House Ring under the Surveillance of Jim Burns, Gen. Potter and Alick Reed—the lobby corruptionists—after three months scheming, have succeeded in overpowering the voice of the honest Democratic yeomanry outside of Bellefonte, and secured the nomination of Alexander for the Senate, so far as Centre County is concerned, and P. G. Meek for the Assembly.

The Watchman under the control of Meek, and the Reporter printed by the "Cooly" Kurtz, in fear and trembling of the Bellefonte Bourbons, pursued their deceptive course to hoodwink the country Democrats, with the cry of "Nigger," Bill Armstrong, Bill Brown &c., until they could secure the nomination of Alexander and Meek.

Knowing every trick and movement of the Court House Ring, to accomplish their corrupt and selfish object, and to enrich their candidates by dividing the Legislative corruption fund, under the control of Jim Burns & Co., who visited the Ring at sundry times, and who fixed upon Alexander and Meek, as the sharp and experienced corruptionists, we predicted for weeks before the Assembling of the Democratic convention, the over throw of Jacob G. Meyer, and the ratification of Alexander and Meek, by said convention. We considered it but just, to give this information, to the country Democrats, at least that portion of them, who are our patrons, who read the Republican and know the tricks, and political chicanery of the Ring, and its confederates,to secure the disgrace of Jacob G. Meyer, and the elevation of Alexander and Meek.

Thus our readers will see, that it was not to gratify any personal spleen or animosity, that we published, from week to week, in the colums of the REPUBLICAN, for the information of honest men every where, the wickedness, treachery, and deceit, practiced by the Ring for the purpose of carrying out their corrupt intentions. We, now, ask our readers and the country Democrats, have we not told the truth? Have not our predictions all proved true? Have not Alexander and Meek secured their nomination in the very manner in which we foretold they would?

Both of these political office seekers have been served before, and they have given us evidence that they lossed nothing by serving their constituents in Harrisburg. This evidence is abundantly manifest. In the purchase of real estate, and Brick palaces, purchased and reared, directly after the expiration of their first term of public service. The taste they received then, causes them to hunger and thirst for more. They have a strong desire to get back to Harrisburg once more, and to this end they informed the Democrats of the county in advance, that they understood the corruptionists, and the "politicians who hang about Harrisburg" better than Mr. Meyer or any other member of their party in the county. Is it any wonder they should desire to go back? Do you ask the reason why?

"Their word's sufficient; and to ask a reason,
In such a State as theirs, is downright treason."

Were they satisfied to let favors go round? Or, in other words, do they practice on the Democratic principle of Rotation in office? Not a bit of it. Have not both these gentlemen rode the county over, begging and praying to be sent back? What for? Are there no Democrats in the party, as well qualified to represent the county, as are these two office seekers and Ring Masters? Is Alexander better entitled, at this time, to the Senatorial nomination than D. G. Bush, S. T. Shugert, and a dozen of other Democrats? Had Meek a stronger claim to a nomination for the Assembly, than had Chester Munson, Capt. Hunter or Wm. J. Kelsh, all active Democrats? These men were not nominated, simply because the Ring had predetermined weeks before the convention, that Meyer must decline and that Meek should be his successor. Messrs. Munson,, Hunter, Kelsh and others must therefore stand back for "one year" or longer, until the Ring has occasion to call them out, or until P. G. Meek has built another brick palace. Why is this? Are not all of these men the Peers of P. G. Meek? Are they not his equals either in honesty, Democracy, or morals? And, yet, with the unblushing impudence of this Buchanier, he says in speaking of himself in his own paper, the Watchman, "For the "complimentary manner of the nomi- "nation, and this renewed expression of "confidence tendered by the Democra- "cy of the county, he is truly grate- "ful."

Tendered by the Democracy of the county. Ha! ha! that is good, and in true Meek style. Tendered! Well, well; when will wonders cease! Meek never solicited the office, never electioneered for it!! No, no; it was tendered to him. Will he accept? Tendered; an office tendered to Meek by the Democracy of the county! The very idea makes us laugh, and we have laughed until our sides are sore. Tendered! Ha! ha! ha!

Both Meek and Alexander, either personally or by agents, traveled over every township in the county seeking these nominations! Neither Meek nor Alexander ever showed any modesty in the pursuit of plunder. Their scent for office is remarkable, and their tricks, intrigues and pursuits indiscribable. The fight of the Ring last fall sinks into utter insignificance, when compared with the one just closed. Bribery, deception, dishonesty and abandonment of every consideration of honor, was resorted to by Alexander and Meek to secure their nominations. Tendered! forsooth! But it is not all gold that glitters. Are honest men bound to support such nominations, or abide the action of a packed convention? We do not believe they are. And we have conversed with scores of Democrats who declare they will not be.

There never was a time, when more dissention, more well grounded dissatisfaction existed in the ranks of the Democrats of the county, than at present. Their best men are so strongly committed against Alexander and Meek, that it is impossible for them to support them and maintain their manhood, their dignity. This the Ring will more fully realize on the day of election, in the defeat—the total overthrow of their nominee plunderers.

THE SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

We have frequently been asked why we were so quiet on the Senatorial question. In our issue of August 3d, two correspondents, the one signing himself "Looker On," the other "Working Republican" put the question pretty direct to us. "Looker On" says "I have been looking for something in your columns advocating the claims of Centre County to one of the nominees for the State Senate,&c". By "Working Republican" we are asked "Why are you so quiet? Have you no interest in the contest?"

In answer to these interrogatories, we would say that we have always had a deep interest in the Senatorial contest; and have been watching closely every movement made in that direction. But it did not suit us to interfere until the sterling Republicans of Centre, should have decided in their County convention, as to whom their choice should be. There being but one Republican paper in the County and three candidates for Senatorial honors, we could not of course take sides with any one of these, without doing injustice to the others, and subjecting ourself to the charge of unfairness, and which cventually would have ended in injuring the paper, and building up as many factions in the party as there were aspirants for office. We chose not to do this, but to remain non-committal and quiet, taking no part until after the convention should have fixed the choice of Center county.

This the Convention did on Wednesday the 10th inst. In one of the most harmonious and intelligent conventions which have assembled in our county for many years, Wm. P. Wilson Esq., received 65 votes, out of 87, on the first ballot, and was then enthusiastically declared the unanimous nominee of the Convention for State Senate. Every delegate in that large and respectable convention, knew Mr. Wilson personally, and well. They knew him to be a high-minded, honest, honorable man, and christian gentleman, well qualified in point of tact, judgment and ability, to represent this Senatorial district for the next three years, with honor to himself and to his constituents. Those delegates declared that they realized the fact that Centre County had claims upon the other counties of the district, which we intend to maintain, and which it would be well for them not to overlook. For this reason, they presented the man of their choice, knowing him to be able, worthy and competent, and they intend to fight for him to the bitter end. We most heartily approve of their wise and fixed determination, and have resolved, so far as in us lies, to aid them to accomplish the glorious result.

To the counties forming this Senatorial district, we would say respectfully and kindly, we have presented you a first class man, one in everyway qualified to fill the position. He is the unanimous choice of our county. Our county with Mifflin, claims the candidates this time. It is our right. It is but simply justice. With Mr. Wilson, as one of our standard bearers, you can look for a glorious report of Centre County in October next, and an old fashioned, certain and sure victory throughout the District. We shall respectfully claim our rights, under these circumstances; but nevertheless at all times maintain a position to demand them.

NO ARANGEMENT.—We are not filling out the contracts of Mr. C. B. Gould, Editor of the late Bellefonte National Dec'd, the stock-holders of that concern having failed to make the necessary arrangements with Mr. Gould, to enable us to do so. No reasonable man would therefore, expect us to fill out these contracts at our own expense. We most cordially invite all the old National subscribers as well as every member of our organization in the county to subscribe for the REPUBLICAN. Terms $2,00 in advance.

DEFEAT OF SAMUEL FOSTER—HE DID NOT SUIT THE RING.

The defeat of Mr. Saml. Foster, for Commissioner, by the Democratic Convention on the 9th inst., is another living illustration of Democratic venality and hate, borne against every and all Democrats, who may have had the slightest hand officially in the affairs of the Government. Mr. Foster has always been a Democrat; but when the aristocratic, rebel. Slave-holders made war upon the Government, and when thousands of our sons, brothers and friends, in obedience to their country's call, were rushing to the front to fight for Liberty and to save the best Government God ever gave to man, Mr. Foster sympathised with those noble boys in blue and with his Government. He was ever ready to uphold the cause of freedom, to assist in raising more men for the army, and in securing more money for the vigorous prosecution of the war.

For this sympathy and for these noble evidences of his love of the Union, and his Government, he was appointed one of the U. S. Revenue Assessors of this District. He served with distinction in this office, up till one year ago last spring. This lost him the confidence of Meek and the Ring. Judge Mayer, a few months ago, appointed him County Commissioner to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Keller. His time will be out in November next. He offered his name to the Democratic convention on the 9th inst., for the nomination of County Commissioner. He was defeated. Why? Simply because he was loyal to his Government and true to his doctrines of State Rights during the continuance of the Rebellion.

The defeat of Mr. Foster, therefore, in the face of all these facts, is a piece of shabbiness of the most shameful character. It is particularly shabby in his case, for the reason that he had received on four consecutive ballots the highest number of votes, among all the candidates, and yet defeated by only four on the final ballot.

It should be born in mind that Mr. Foster was a candidate in previous conventions for that nomination, while Mr. Sankey made his first attempt on this occasion. Mr. Foster was, by all fair means, entitled to this nomination from the Democratic Convention; but Alexander and Meek had sold out and betrayed Walker township to give it to Sankey, and thus secure the delegates of Gregg twp. to themselves, and they could not suffer Foster to have it. So after the fourth ballot, a breathing spell was had—a little whispering and buttonholing of delegates in Convention, the command was given, a fifth ballot taken, and Foster was slaughtered. Could meanness go farther? Could ingratitude have done more? But so it is. What the leaders of the Democratic party cannot do in point of ingratitude, and mean and treacherous action, need not be attempted by any one else. Well might Mr. Foster exclaim, in the language of Shakespeare's King Richard II:

"O villians, vipers, dam'd without redemption:
Dogs, easily won to fawn on any man;
Snakes (copperheads) in my heart-blood warm
that sting my heart;
Three Judases, each one thrice worse than Judas."

THE REBEL CHIEF—JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The rebel leader and ex-President of the Southern Confederacy, was serenaded by the rebels of Chattanooga, while on a visit to Lookout Mountain. He made a speech of course, which is as follows:

"MY FRIENDS.—It affects me from the very bottom of my heart to receive this demonstration of your kindly feeling towards me. I had retired in a double sense—for the night and from public life. In view of the past, no man can blame me for my determination to let those who have power dictate how the country shall be governed. But standing here to-night upon the sacred soil of Tennessee, I will say to you that I wish you all the prosperity that is possible. Looking back upon the past and forward to the future, I can see nothing that should taint your honor. It is not the part of brave men to brood over the sorrows of the past, but rather to look forward with bright hopes for the future. You have as brave and high minded a people as can be found, and as noble women as live on earth, and I wish you all the happiness and prosperity that is in human life to enjoy. Again I thank you for this manifestation of your kindness."

P. G. Meek copied the speech, and in speaking of Jefferson Davis, says, this distinguished gentleman, late President of the Southern Confederacy, has lost none of his popularity with his own people." What does this mean? Does it not prove that the Rebels of the South are just as bitter against the government and the people of the North, as they were before, or during the war? That they are defiant and unrepentant, is evidenced by the language made use of by this arch traitor. He says, mark the language: "Looking back upon the "past and forward to the future, I can "see nothing that should taint your "honor." Davis might as well have said, you were all rebels, it is true. We rebelled against the best and freest government under heaven, we murdered and starved thousands of Union soldiers and Union prisoners, who were fighting for the old flag, liberty and Union; yet, fellow rebels "I can see nothing that should taint your honor."

Rebellious, defiant and devilish, as is this speech, the little traitor of the Watchman endorses it and says; "When "Mr. Davis said that looking back upon "the past, and forward to the future, "he could see nothing that could taint "the honor of the Southern people, he "but paid them a compliment in which "all magnanimous minds will join. No "braver people ever drew a sword in "defense of liberty, or laid it it down "so unstained with dishonor."

Meek has forgotten the horors of Libby prison and the wicked and outrageous treatment of Union prisoners by this man Davis and his rebel fiends. It shows however, where Meek's sympathies are, and ever have been.

Soldiers, loyal men of Centre County, are you ready to endorse the doctrine that the rebels of the South were fighting for Liberty. If they were, what were our soldiers the noble "Boys in Blue" fighting for? How humiliating it must be to every loyal and intelligent man in our county, to have Meek publish such palpable, damnable, treason, and circulate broad-cast over the land as the sentiment of the Democratic party.

A DEMOCRAT, the other day, remarked, in our presence, that he could not understand the reason why Meek should always eulogize the moral and political characters of the traitors of the late rebellion, just previous to every election, as it was damaging to the success of his party. Our Democratic friend can get the desired information by asking Gen. Marmaduke, or—well, Frank P. Blair.

Hon. H. D. Barron, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, whose name has been mentioned as the Congressional candidate in the Sixth distsict of Wisconsin has written a letter declining to run. This leaves the field open to State Senator Price and General Rush.

THE COUNTY FINANCES.

Our readers are well aware, that for the last six months, we have been charging the county Treasurer and the county Commissioners with dereliction of duty in collecting the taxes of 1868 and previous years, and that said taxes as shown by their own official and published report, are in the hands of the pet collectors of the Ring. We have shown by this same official report, that there are over $36,000 outstanding in the hands of these pet collectors. A sufficient sum to pay off the county indebtedness and save the tax-payers of the county from paying exhorbitant taxes to meet the usurious interest which is paid to shavers by these back-bone-less Commissioners. We have, time after time, asked Mr. Meek to take that published report and point out to us one single or false statement we have made in regard to it. We have done more. We have dared and defied him to contradict a single charge we have made. Does he answer? Has he complied with our request?

Instead of taking up that report, and giving facts, figures and arguments to prove the falsity of our statements, he resorts, true to his treacherous, niggardly meckish nature, to low personal abuse of us, and in this way, and by howling out against the borough taxes, high rents, &c., expects to silence the inquiring minds of the honest Democrats and tax-payers of the county.

This will not do, Mr. Meek. The time is gone by when low blackguardism will answer for argument.

What the tax-payers of Centre Co., require of you, is to explain to them the covered up and obscure items in the last Auditors and Commissioners Report. They want you to explain why it is that our County taxes are six mills to the dollar, while you are constantly alledging that the County is out of debt. They want you to explain why the County Treasurer and County Commissioners do not compel their pet collectors to pay over to them the $36,000 they have collected, of 1868 and previous years? They want you to explain why the Commissioners refuse to compel the payment of this money and at the same time borrow money at 12 per cent to carryon the financial department of the County. They are anxious to know why you do not, if you are an honest and unprejudiced Editor, publish the names of these Democratic defaulting pet Collectors. We may help you out of this dilemma by publishing a list of the names of these particular Collectors, in the columns of the REPUBLICAN, before long. Arguments, facts, Mr. Meek, are what the people want.

"FARMERS READ."

For the purpose of making a little political capital, the mendacious Meek, in his last number of his vile sheet, says that Judge McCandless, of the United States Court a few weeks ago, decided that "the farmer who brings his wheat and corn, his rye and oats, his potatoes, and turnips, his butter, eggs and chickens to town to sell, without a license, violates the revenue laws, and is liable to be arrested and fined," and that this is the law of "Radicalism" etc.

Now there is not one word of truth in this, and Meek knew it. In the first place Judge McCandless is a Democrat, having been appointed by James Buchanan, and the "Radical" party is in no way responsible for his construction of the law. In the second place, he made no such decision. What he did decide was, that farmers had the right to vend and sell their own productions, either at the farm, or by hauling them about in their wagons, without the payment of any tax,—but that if a farmer took a regular stand in the market and made himself a "produce broker," he was liable to pay a special tax of $10,00 per annum, the same as retail dealers and other produce brokers, with whom he came in competition.

When, therefore, Meek says that a farmer "cannot bring a thing to town to sell, without runing the risk of being arrested and fined," it is simply a lie, concocted to impose upon the ignorant. Every farmer can bring his produce to town and sell it as heretofore, without paying a cent of tax. There is nothing in the law or in any decision of Judge McCandless to prevent him.

There is no misrepresentation too mean or vile, for Meek to resort to. Our people have long known, that there is no reliance to be placed in anything contained in his paper. Hence it is needless to point out the numerous falsehoods that are constantly spread over his columns. His little brain is ever busy concocting stupid stories that bear the he upon their face, or filthy slanders of people with whom he cannot associate. He is pursuing a carreer that will inevitably and eventually bring its own punishment. He is sowing the wind, to reap the whirlwind.

FRANCE.

THE ORLEANS PRINCESS—THIERS ON THE EMPIRE—D'AUVERGNE AND THE NEW MINISTRY.

LONDON, August 12.—The Duke of Chartres has asked permission to take service in the French army. He claims the privilege as a Frenchman who has learned something of the art of war in America and Italy.

M. Thiers is reported to have said, "The Empire is ended and a republic inevitable!"

The Paris Pays publishes a letter from Charles Desmoulins, dated at Nancy, denouncing the Emperor's bad generalship.

He says: "McMahon, gallantly struggling, was beaten for lack of support, though there were multitudes of armed Frenchmen at hand eager to save him. The passage of the Rhine was undefended, the commissariat was utterly inadequate, and the soldiers were compelled to eat sour fruit and raw vegetables, and take the consequences. Prussia to-day has Alsace; to-morrow she will have Lorraine.

The people are dispirited. The soldiers believe themselves betrayed, and clamor for a leader."

PRUSSIA.

A GREAT BATTLE MOMENTARILY EXPECTED—THE GARRISON AT STRASBURG MUST SURRENDER.

ANTWERP, August 12.—Advices from the seat of war state that the great battle is momentarily expected.

BERLIN, August 11.—A party of French wounded, just in, are being forwarded to Spandau. To-day, 2,265 French officers and soldiers taken in Saturday's battles arrived here.

LONDON, August 12.—From the best information that can be gained, it appears the garrison of Strasburg consists of only one regiment of foot and a small force of the National Guard.

The supplies in the place are in proportion to the garrison. A siege is therefore impossible, and the capture of the place will probably be an easy matter.

The 1st Prussian Corps d'Armee is at Pfalzburg.

NAPOLEON ABANDONS METZ.

LONDON, August 14—Napoleon's retreat from Metz is fully confirmed.

THE FRENCH ARMY WITHDRAWS TO THE WEST BANK OF THE MOSELLE.

LONDON, August 14.—Advices from Metz state that the French army has withdrawn to the west bank of the Moselle. MacMahon is at Toul, twelve miles west of Nancy. The evacuation of Metz is considered certain.

STRASBURG TO BE STARVED OUT.

The Prussians count on starving out the defenders of Strasburg without bombardment.

BAGGAGE TRAINS CAPTURED.

A dispatch from Nancy, via Berlin, dated Saturday night, says a French battalion moving towards Metz was encountered in the morning on the railway near Pont-a-Mousson, and retreated, leaving its baggage trains in the hands of the Prussians.

FRENCH SUPPLIES CUT OFF.

The Prussian cavalry have destroyed a portion of the railway between Frouard and Paris cutting off supplies and forage for the French troops sheltered under the glaciers of Metz.

NO COMMUNICATION WITH NANCY.

PARIS, August 14, Noon.—There is nothing new from head quarters of the army. Telegraphic communication was interrupted yesterday between Paris and Nancy.

NANCY OCCUPIED BY THE PRUSSIANS.

Last night the authorities of Toul sent a dispatch to Paris, stating that Nancy had been occupied by a Prussian detachment. The news is confirmed this morning.

THE REMOVAL OF THE PRINCE IMPERIAL FROM FRANCE.

BRUSSELS, August 13.—Advice from Metz, through private channels, seem to confirm the story of the removal of the Prince Imperial from France. He has not been seen here, either in camp or at church since Sunday.

EUGENIE PREPARING TO LEAVE FRANCE.

COUNTY FAIR.—The annual exhibition of the Centre County Agricultural Society, will be held on the society's grounds, at Bellefonte, on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th days of October next. This being the week before the election candidates for office will have a chance to circulate. The posters and premium list will be out, we believe, in a week or ten days.

WHEAT.—G. T. Ross showed us a specimen of wheat—the name of which he has forgotten, which was very nice indeed. He bought two bushels in Columbia, Pa., last fall and sowed it on about 1½ acres of ground. It yielded him 24 bushels of clean wheat. This, we think, is doing well. It stood up nicely and was not effected by the midge or fly. It is a white beardy wheat. What is its name?

IMPORTANT TO WITNESSES.—The Legislature of this State passed a law, last winter, for the purpose of more effectually compelling the attendance of witnesses subpœnaed to testify in cases in court. We publish the law so that those interested may not be ignorant of the penalty prescribed for disregarding the mandates of the court:

That if any person shall have been required, by virtue of any writ of subpœna, or other process, to attend and testify in any prosecution for forgery, perjury or felony, before any other judicial tribunal in this Commonwealth, or who may have been recognized or held to bail to attend as a witness on behalf of the Commonwealth or defendant, before any court having jurisdiction, to testify in any prosecution, as aforesaid, shall unlawfully and wilfully, from this Commonwealth, or from the jurisdiction of such court, and with intent to defeat the ends of public justice, abscond, elope or conceal himself and refuse to appear as required by said subpœna or other legal process or recognizance of bail, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, being thereof convicted, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

INTER-STATE FAIR.—An Inter-State Fair has been located at Pittsburg, Pa., at Iron City Park, commencing Sept. 12, 1870, and continuing five days. While it is especially intended for Western Penn'a., Western N. Y., Eastern and Southern Ohio, and West Virginia, competition is invited and expected from all sources.

The Premiums are most liberal in all departments, exceeding $10,000; for trials of speed, there are three premiums of $100 each; two of $75, and five of $50, with over $1,100; for cattle of all grades. One grand and new feature will be found in Class No. 15—collections by County Agricultural Societies, exhibiting in competition Seeds, Vegetables, Fruits, &c., thus bringing together many samples for comparison. Let this fair meet with the success it so eminently deserves, both in number of exhibitors and visitors.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.—This institution is, indeed, in a flourishing condition. No school in Central Pennsylvania, can in our humble opinion, surpass this. Prof. Hughes is master of his profession, and although he has been Principal of this Academy not quite two years, he has put the institution upon a certain and sure foundation and gained for himself a reputation of which he may well feel proud. As a teacher of music Mrs. J. P. Hughes has no superior in this or any other county.

The rooms have been newly repaired and put in first rate order, for the comfort of the pupils. In the second place, commutation tickets are furnished to those living upon the line of Railroad, who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of this school. And in the third place, the recitation hours of pupils coming and returning by the cars, will be arranged so as to suit their convenience.

We hope all parents who desire the welfare of their children, and who wish them well educated in a scolastic and moral sense will support the school well. Why send your sons and your daughters abroad to be educated when have a superior institution in your unty-town—at your own doors? thought just here will save you and it may be, trouble.

The President replied "that, in his case, the office really sought the man, as was the case, as he believed, with every man before the convention today."

James H. Rankin, Esq., then announced that the committee on resolutions were ready to report.

A motion in favor of having the resolutions read having been made and carried unanimously, Jas. H. Rankin, Esq., in a clear and distinct manner, read the following:

The Representatives of the Republican voters, and citizens of Centre county, in annual convention assembled, hereby declare, as their platform of principles and policy:

First. That we heartily endorse the Administration of President Grant, for its honesty, economy, patriotism and wisdom, and that it has deserved and won our fullest confidence, respect and approval.

Second. That we find in the Administration of the affairs of the government of our Commonwealth, by Gov. John W. Geary, and his associates, a complete vindication of the wisdom of our choice of our public servants, and that, for its success in promoting our best interests, maintaining economy, reducing the public debt, relieving the property of our people from taxation, and promoting the cause of law and order, it deserves our support and applause.

Third. That we rejoice in the success of our general Government in securing so rapid and gratifying a reduction of our National war-debt, and in the wisdom of our Congress in so largely relieving our industrial interests and property from the burdens of taxation, imposed by the losses and waste of our late war for the Union.

Fourth. That we believe the protection of our own laboring people, and the interests of our mechanics, artizans and manufacturers, by a wise system of taxation upon the products of the pauper labor of Europe and Asia, is the true and only wise policy of our Government, and we pledge our continued support to all measures which are tending to foster and build up our home industries, and to serve the interests of our workingmen, by making a full field for labor of every description, at fair profits to employers.

Fifth. That, while we welcome to our country men of every nation and clime, who may come here to find a home, and adapt themselves to our institutions, become citizens amongst us, and aid in developing our country in peace, and in defending it in war, we unhesitatingly condemn any policy that would flood the land with the Coolies of China, or any other country under a system of contracts that cheapens labor, destroys the interest of our own working men, and is not greatly different from the system of chattle slavery that in the past has cost us so much, and injured the interests of all our industrious freemen so greatly.

Sixth. That, as we witness the rapid increase of our population and resources, the growing power of our nation, the development of the national resource and improvement of the Southern States lately in rebellion, the growth of our towns and cities, the extension of railroads, and the evident prosperity and happiness of our people, we are reminded again of the debt of gratitude we owe to the soldiers and sailors who, by their endurance, bravery and patience, rescued our nation from destruction, anarchy and misrule, and renew to them our sincere and heartfelt thanks.

Seventh. That we are justly proud of the Representatives of Pennsylvania in the Senate of the United States, Hon.'s Simon Cameron and John Scott, and recognize in them fearless, able and devoted public servants, and firm friends of the interests of our State, and of the protection of American labor.

Eighth. That the Republicans of Centre county, without hesitation, cordially endorse and approve the conduct of our Representative in the Congress of the United States, Hon. W. H. Armstrong, and declare him to be our first and only choice as a candidate for election to the Forty-second Congress, having full confidence in his patriotism, his industry and devotion to the interests of his constituents and the cause of American labor.

Ninth. That we pledge our hearty support, in every way, to the development of our own county, and our candidates to an earnest effort to foster all enterprises looking to the improvement of our county, and especially to the enterprise that promises to give to Pennsvalley the L. C. & S. C. Railroad.

Tenth. That in William P. Wilson we present to the people of the Twenty-first Senatorial district a worthy candidate, and one in whom we have the fullest confidence as to fidelity, honesty and ability, and respectfully ask from them the ratification of our nomination as due us at this time, and one eminently fit to be made.

Eleventh. We hereby pledge our best efforts in the support of the candidates this day nominated, and call upon all our people to cordially assist in securing their election.

When Mr. Rankin finished the reading of the resolutions, they were unanimously adopted by the convention.

Levi A. Miller, Esq., then offered the following resolution which, after considerable debate was voted down, the convention determining that the representation of the different townships should remain, for the present, without changes:

Resolved, That the County Standing Committee be authorized and directed to re-apportion the county, and fix upon the number of delegates to which each election district shall hereafter be entitled, and that the representation in the next Republican County Convention shall be in accordance with the apportionment as made by said Committee.

The resolution having been lost, the convention then adjourned with three enthusiastic cheers for Armstrong, Wilson, Duncan, and the whole ticket, and three cheers for the platform of the Republican party.

JNO. IRWIN, President.

B. O. DEININGER, W. W. ROGERS, Secretaries.

For the REPUBLICAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

It affords us great pleasure to say to the public through your columns, that the Sabbath School celebration, held in the neighborhood of Meek's Church, was a perfect success. The procession consisting of six schools, numbering about 600 scholars, formed at the church at 9 a. m., led by the band and speakers, followed by the long line of children, bearing wreaths, banners and flags, constituted, we think, one of the most beautiful sights ever witnessed in our valley. The procession marched to a beautiful grove where everything was found in ample order. The grounds chosen for the occasion were beautiful, evincing to all the great pains taken, and the good taste displayed on the part of the committee of arrangements.

The order of exercise began with a welcome address by the martial, J. P. Campbell, followed with prayer by Rev. Butlar; addresses were then made by Rev. Singer, Brison, Butlar, Kelley, General Beaver, and Hon. David Fortney.

At 11½ A. M., dinner was announced when, in a very few moments, speaking and band playing was postponed and 1,100 persons were in line of march for the dinner table; we found it literally groaning beneath the luxuries of the valley.

The table was built in the form of a square, and in size sufficient to accomodate 600 persons, so that twice it was surrounded with a hungry crowd, and twice it was relieved of its burden composed of everything that the generous hearted women of the Valley could invent.

We are happy to say that we as spectators, were highly gratified with everything connected with the occasion, the dinner was excellent, the grounds were beautiful, the speeches were interesting and instructive, and the whole order of the day good beyond criticism, so that, we think, the celebration in all its particulars, reflects great credit on the Fair Brook Sabbath School.

NEWS FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.—The Lewistown Democrat says; Prof. Rogers, of Phil'a., having reported that no traces of poison could be found in the stomach of the late Mrs. Bigelow; her husband, Dr. Bigelow was last week released from jail.

.....In this place on Saturday John Coon, a lad 13 years of age, was knocked insensible, and received a severe gash upon his head. His father was digging a well, and the boy helping to draw up the debris. Whilst the bucket was descending the handle of the windlass slipped from his hand, and struck him upon the head.

.....Levi Smith, a workman at Bates & McFarland's saw mill, in Armagh township, on the 1st inst., by a misstep was thrown upon the circular saw, which cut a huge piece of flesh from his thigh and grazed the bone. Dr. Harshbarger dressed the wound, and the patient is doing well.

BLAIR COUNTY.—Mr. John Deafenbaugh, proprietor of the Sinking Valley Tannery, in Blair county, while engaged in oiling machinery, was caught by his left arm under one of the belts, and was thrown over a wheel, striking the floor violently on his head and neck, breaking his left arm, and injuring his back and both legs. He is in a critical condition.

.....George Huston, of Sabbath Rest, lost a wallet containing $4,250, on the 9th inst.

.....The showman who shot William Caker, in Hollidaysburg, has been arrested in Ohio, and will be brought to this county so soon as a requisition can be obtained.

.....On Saturday last George Brown an employee in Moses Brown's ice cream establishment in Hollidaysburg, had his right hand caught in the cog-wheels of the horse-power freezer, losing his little finger and badly crushing the back of his hand.

.....A son of John Craig of Williamsburg, was thrown off a fence on Wednesday week, and had an arm broken.

.....On Tuesday week a terrific thunder storm passed over Morrison's Cove. The barn of Mrs. Shoemaker, near Martinsburg, was struck by lightning, and together with all its contents and a stack of hay near, burned. The loss is about $3,000. The house of Mrs. Pudebaugh, near Martinsburg, was also struck, but not much injured. A cow belonging to Isaac Dillinger, standing in a pasture field, was instantly killed.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.—The Journal says: About 1 o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, August 5th, a man by the name of Michale Croyton, a miner, was found dead near Houtzdale, in this county, and about three miles west of Osceola. On Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock, 'Squire Rogers, of Osceola, summond a jury and held an inquest, when it was found that the skull of the unfortunate man was fractured, and several of his ribs broken. After a full investigation, the jury rendered the following verdict, to wit: "That the deceased came to his death by the hands of some person, or persons, unknown." Why the murder was committed is, so far, a mistery, and the perpetrators of the deed are still unknown. It is to be hoped however, that they now may be discovered and the merited punishment inflicted.

.....Mr. Z. C. M'Cullough, of this place, last week accidentally fell through the joice in the new house he is erecting in the South part of the borough, severely injuring his left foot and left shoulder, beside receiving a cut on the head and one on the right wrist. He is able to go about again, and will soon resume his work.

BEDFORD COUNTY.—One day last week, the Widow Shoemaker's barn near Martinsburg was stuck by lightning and burned to the ground. All the hay and grain were consumed.

.....On Friday last Mr. Michael Dibert of Bedford tp., had his leg broken above the ankle, by a colt which he was breaking, falling on it. We understand he is improving rapidly.

.....On the 23d ult., near the borough of Coaldale, a son of Jeremiah Goodwin, aged about twelve years, got some powder in his possession and went out to amuse himself with it. After pouring it on the ground, he placed a coal of fire to it, and stooped down to blow it. When the powder ignited he inhaled the whole discharge, and was burned so badly that he died next day. This a very sad affair, and should serve as a warning to other boys.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., in Altoona, Esther V. Tate, Daughter of Lawrence and Margaret Bathurst and wife of W. V. Tate, in the 21st year of her age.

Dear friend thou art gone. No more the Home circle shall be cheered by thy presence. The chair at the Fireside shall be vacant, but we will often think of thee, and breath thy cherished name, and although thou art gone the memory of former years shall live in our hearts, the same.

The subject of this humble tribute died trusting in the Lord, and in hope of that rest that remains for the people of God. No traces of anguish or grief rested on her fair open brow. Peace seemed to sit upon her smiting lips, that peace which comes from a heart stayed on God. Thou wilt keep them in perfect peace, whose minds are stayed on thee, because they wish in thee. T. C. GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERGS.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,

And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

THE REPUBLICAN.

Wednesday Morning Aug. 17, 1870.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

The Bellefonte REPUBLICAN and the "American Agriculturist."

We are now prepared to offer the people of Centre county, A Great Bargain for the coming year. It is this: to every subscriber who will send us $3.00 in advance, we will send the

and the

for the year. Of the REPUBLICAN we need not speak at present.

The American Agriculturist is a work that no farmer nor housekeeper should be without. As a farm-journal we think it has no superior in the world—certainly none in the United States. It is issued monthly, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum. By clubing with the REPUBLICAN you save fifty cents, and secure more good reading matter than you can obtain in any other way for the same money.

We hope the reading public will avail themselves of this very liberal offer.

Converting Straw into Manure.

The editor of the Ohio Farmer, in reply to a correspondent who asks "how he may convert a large stack of straw into manure so that it may be used the coming fall as a manure for wheat," replies as follows:

This is an important question, and one that thousands of farmers throughout the country should ask themselves, and at the same time adopt some means of doing the work. It takes a straw stack very many years to rot down into manure, and no wise farmer will wait for this. There are several methods adopted for decomposing straw: one and in our opinion the most profitable, is to use it as a stable feed and litter in the winter time; another is by scattering in the furrow behind the plow, and covering it up: a third by spreading it over the surface of a field in the Spring and burning it. By this means the heat destroys the upstarting weeds, and ashes make a valuable fertilizer.

It is, of course too late in the season for the adoption of the first method by our correspondent, and receive any benefit this season, and as the second, a great deal of labor is required to accomplish the desired end, and sufficient decomposition would not take place to render any material aid to the first crop. We do not believe the full value of the material can be obtained by burning, as most of the worn land needs loosening up as well as strengthening, and straw is one of the very best materials for this purpose.

Our advice would be to let the stack stand until fall. Go on and put the wheat in as well as can be done, and then draw out the straw and sprinkle it over the entire surface of the field, if you have enough. In this way you secure a double value; the mulch protects the wheat plants in winter, preventing the upheaving of the roots by the action of the frost. It will be noticed that where-ever a coating of snow remains upon a wheat field during winter there is a vigorous growth in the spring, and here is the philosophy of using straw as mulching; more frequently the snow is blown than melted away, the straw retains it.

The dressing may be put upon the field as soon as the grain is harrowed in, or after the fall growth is completed but not profitably at any time between these two periods. The coating, if put on at seeding time, should not be so heavy as to prevent the free growth of the grain. After the crop had been removed, the straw, which will then be considerably rotted, may be plowed under with the stubble when a second benefit will be derived.

Holes In The Pocket Book.

Farmers, mind well that you keep no holes in your pocket books. If you do, be sure all the "tin" will slip through and be lost. Let us see how some men make holes in their pocket books:

If you plow shallow, plant inferior seed, and then suffer what comes up to run to grass or fall a prey to insects, you make a hole in your pocket book.

If you turn out your stock upon the common to mix with inferior breeds, or allow them to stray or be stolen, be sure you have a hole in your pocket book.

If you purchase abroad what you might easily and cheaply make at home such things will make holes in your pocket books.

If you spend your time and money at elections or stores drinking or carousing when you ought to be at work, be assured there is a big hole away down deep in your pocket book.

If you keep bad fences or bad gates, and your neighbor's stock break in upon your growing crops, and then you worry or injure them with dogs, and by so doing turn a friend into an enemy, you make a sad rent in your pocket book.

If you leave your tools to be thrown about here and there, exposed to all sorts of weather, be sure they will rot and rust and eat holes in your pocket book.

Land undrained and unmanured, stock poorly fed or neglected, orchards left to grow at will or be pruned by cattle, idleness, sloth, tobacco, whiskey worthless dogs, fine clothes, all these make sad holes in the pocket book, the memory of which will not be pleasant when the evening shadows come, and you find that you have done nothing for a rainy day.—American Farmer.

POULTRY.—Feed your poultry on raw onions chopped fine, mixed with other food twice a week. It is better than a dozen cures for chicken cholera. Fowls exposed to dampness are apt to be troubled with catarrh, which will run into croup if not attended to. Red pepper mixed with soft food, fed several times a week, will remove the cold. Pulverized charcoal, is a preventive of putrid affections, to which fowls are very subject. The vessel should be deep enough to let the hen stand. Pulverized chalk administered with softer food will cure diarrhœa.—This disorder is caused by want of variety in food, or by too much green food. Garlic fed once or twice a week is excellent for colds.—Gardener's Magazine.

INGROWING TOE NAIL.—This painful abnormal condition of the toe nail may be cured by allowing the nail to continue to grow without paring it. The boot or shoe will depress the nail at the end as it grows longer, which will gradually elevate at the point, where it presses upon and into the soft tissues of the toe, thus removing the irritation, and the sore soon heals.—This is far preferable to the rash and painful operation of tearing off the toe nail with forceps.

Profits of Draining.

At an agricultural convention, recently held in New Hampshire, the Hon. Simon Brown, of the New England Farmer, made the following statement as to the profits of draining:

I am very much surprised that any man should doubt whether tile drainage will pay. I will relate a little experience of my own in the matter. I had about five acres of land that occupied nearly all the front part of my farm. It was the meanest and worst piece of land I think, without any exception, that I ever saw. I came to the conclusion that nobody would think I was much of a farmer if they saw the piece of land in that condition, however well I might do elsewhere. A part of it had been the receptacle for small stones, old stumps and timber, and such like, for many years, and it was very poor. We cut a small quantity of water grass on it, —perhaps 600 or 800 pounds to the acre. It was not worth cutting, and when it was mown, the water would come up to the men's knees. Ten years ago, I commenced digging through this piece of land and putting in stone drains, and it took all the leisure time of three men and myself, for two years, to get that piece of land so that it was fit to lay down. I laid that down in 1861. After three or four years, I cut a very heavy crop of hay from it. But I found I had been working very imperfectly, and in 1866, I commenced to tile drain this land, going as near three feet as I could, and laying the drains about 20 feet apart. The result is, I have taken the water all out of it. In 1867, I planted it with potatoes, and grew as large a crop of potatoes as I ever saw but it being a bad season, they rotted considerably, so that the crop was not great. I sowed this land on the 16th day of March, with herd grass, and I got a very good crop there this year. It was rather a bad season for land sowed at that time, I have got that land so that I have mowed it a number of years with the mowing machine, where before it was impossible to have driven a horse at all. I have no doubt the land would sell for ten times more than it cost to bring it into condition. I took off grass enough to more than pay twice over what it cost me to drain the first time. I put in a hydraulic ram down below, by which I have had a supply of water, at a trifling expense. If this does not prove to any man that that job paid, I don't know anything that will.

Setting Out Strawberry Beds.

Strawberry plants can now be set out from the middle of August to the end of September. It is true August is generally a very warm and very dry month, but in cases of the absence of rain the newly planted bed must be watered every day or two until they become established.

The bed should not be in a damp situation or the soil heavy. Dig deep, pulverize finely, and apply a pretty heavy dose of good barn-yard manure. Let the division be about three and a half feet in width, and as long as may be desirable. Set the plants about 18 inches apart, insert them in the ground firmly, but not deeply, and then keep clear of all grass and weeds.

As to the varieties, we would choose for our own planting, the following: "Triumph," "Russell," and "Hovey, and if we wished another, "Jucunda." They should be planted in this wise in making up a full bed, with half a dozen or a dozen divisions. 1 Jucunda 3 Hovey, 4 Russell. In this way a fine crop is assured with as much certainty as anything can be. The last of November protect the plants with a light covering of straw the first year; after that, if needed, light manure may be substituted as a covering.

A half crop may be expected the first season. A mulch of straw cut two or three inches long will keep the ground moist and cool, which this berry likes, and smother the weeds. This should be applied the first part of April. An application of spent tan is also excellent.—Germantown Telegraph.

How to Know a Goose.

"Mother, mother!" cried a young rook returning hurriedly from its first flight, "I'm so frightened! I've seen such a sight!"

"What sight, my son?" asked the rook.

"Oh, white creatures, screaming and running, and straining their necks and holding their heads ever so high! See, mother, there they go!"

"Geese, my son, merely geese," calmly replied the parent bird, looking over the common. "Through life, child, observe that when you meet any one who makes a great fuss about himself and tries to lift his head higher than the rest of the world, you may set him down at once for a goose!"

THE New York Times calls attention to a matter which is not purely local. It says: 'There is a tendency in some quarters to advance the price of articles at retail, 'on account of the European war.' This is nothing but extortion under false pretenses. There is no reason why a single article of domestic consumption should cost more than it did a month ago, and consumers should understand and remember this fact. Great numbers of the working classes of this city suffer hardships enough without being subjected to all kinds of impostures, for which a pretext is sought in the cable telegrams from Europe."

HOW TO SAVE YOUR SHOE SOLES. It consists merely in melting together tallow and common rosin in the proportion of two parts of the former to one of the latter, and applying the preparation hot, the soles of the boots and shoes as much of it as the leather will absorb. One farmer declares that this little receipt, alone, is worth more than five years, subscription to the newspapers publishing it.

THE Liberty (Mo.) Tribune says the fruit crop of Southwest Missouri is very promising. Accounts from Bates, Cass and Vernon counties represent the peach crop as safe. The apples and small fruit never promised better.

EVERY manure must be dissolved before it can be taken up or absorbed by rootlets, Carbon, silex, sulphur, and every other element must be dissolved before it can be of any service to the plant.

SOMEone speaking of a lady with a very retrousse nose, said "that when noses were distributed, she being easy to please, took the first one that turned up."

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

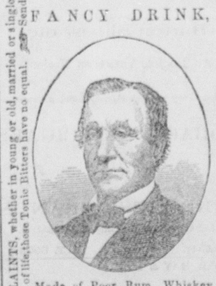
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

MORE THAN 500,000 PERSONS Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,



Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey Proof Spirits, and Refuse Liquors, declared spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine made from the native Roots and Herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and Life Giving Principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator, of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

Cause the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.

J. WALKER, Prop'r, 32 Commerce, St., N. Y. R. A. McDONALD & CO., Druggist, and general Agents, San Francisco and Sacramento, California, and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion, or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attacks of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion of Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are LANGUID and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and cures all humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extracts of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent *Headache, mouth tastes bad*y in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and, those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by Druggists at $1.00 per bottle.
